This image shows a piece of aged, light-colored paper with two columns of Chinese calligraphy written in a bold, cursive brush style. The characters are arranged vertically. The left column contains four characters: '嫁' (jià), '狐' (hú), '和' (hé), and '名' (míng). The right column contains three characters: '三' (sān), '百' (bǎi), and '奇' (qí). The paper has a textured surface with some minor discoloration and faint smudges. A small number '3' is visible near the bottom left corner.
